19. Berger, Elmer. "Peace for Palestine: First Lost Opportunity." Gainesville, FL, University Press of Florida, 1993. Octavo in dust jacket, xvi, 285 pp., maps, notes, bibliography, index.
Elsewhere Berger is described as objective, but this is a silly assertion. He represents a vestigial trace of Reform Judaism's anti-Zionist stand from the years preceding the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948. He has always been an opponent to Zionism. His point of view is useful, but is extreme and must be recognized for what it is. [#15011]
